

Newpark Academy of Music

Part-Time Piano Teacher

Newpark Academy of Music is seeking an experienced and dedicated piano teacher to join our faculty on a part-time basis. This role is ideal for a teacher who is confident working with students across all levels, from complete beginners through to upper intermediate and advanced performers.

The successful candidate will have a thorough understanding of major exam boards and be comfortable preparing students for all aspects of practical exams, including repertoire, technical work, aural skills, and overall musical development.

Key Responsibilities

- Deliver high-quality, engaging one-to-one piano lessons to students of varying ages and abilities
 - Prepare students for graded exams where appropriate, ensuring a well-rounded and thorough approach
 - Support students in developing strong musicianship, technique, and musical understanding
 - Prepare students for performances and concerts throughout the academic year
 - Communicate clearly and professionally with students and their families regarding progress and goals
-

Requirements

- Proven experience teaching piano across a range of levels, including advanced students
- Strong working knowledge of relevant exam boards (such as RIAM, ABRSM, Trinity, or equivalent)
- A flexible, thoughtful approach to teaching, with the confidence to adapt to individual student needs
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills

Desirable (but not essential)

- Availability to teach at one of our outreach locations

This is a rewarding opportunity to join a supportive and collaborative teaching environment, with students who are engaged, motivated, and regularly involved in performance opportunities.

How to Apply

Interested candidates are invited to send a CV and cover letter to the Artistic Director at:

afilardo@newparkmusic.ie